

John Wesley Ranch

Come to John Wesley Ranch for a Western weekend of fun! We head up the trail on Friday afternoon and get there in time for supper! And what a supper it will be! We are hosting a supper party/murder mystery called, "The Good, the Bad & the Guilty". We encourage all of you to wear your cowboy/cowgirl clothes or Native American garb. Once we get there we'll assume the roles of Old West characters and try to solve the mystery. Judge Waylon Payne will be presiding at the hanging of the Malevolent Seven. However, things go awry and we get to be the sluths and find out who among us is the real criminal.

Saturday morning, after a hearty breakfast, you'll have time to hike, take pictures, fish, read a book or just hang out at the lodge. Ranch Director Kenny Funk will also be sharing with us stories of the Native American history of the property and about the geological formations. After lunch, we take our time cleaning up and head back down the old wagon trail toward home. We'll get you back to the springs in time for your Saturday night supper!

Cost for the trip is $25 per person. This includes transportation, lodging and three meals, not to mention the great programs and fellowship.

Registration and payment are due on Sunday, July 11
