2025-2026 Ministry Magazine

We asked your Directors what excited them this coming year. They said...

I am looking forward to seeing The Commons space come alive as a place where our church family can share space and get to know one another better. I can't wait for the day that a 60-something-year-old is playing air hockey with a 6-year-old.

Rev. Amy Strader, Pastor of Young People, Families, and Ranch Campus

I am most excited about our Pathways for Discipleship focus. We are offering a wide variety of opportunities for you to learn, grow, and experience hope! I'm also excited for the launch of the new Foothills Campus, engaging with folks who feel disconnected from faith and community.

Rev. Carrie West, Pastor of Foothills Campus and Caring Ministries

I am excited for the number of people who will find a safe, thriving, relevant faith expression at FUMC in 2025-2026! Don't forget to invite someone to join you here!

Rev. Eric Strader, Pastor of Worship, Discipleship, & Administration

After the last few months of physical transition in the building, I look forward to seeing how we will live into 'a whole new world': new opportunities for learning, music to discover, guests and members to welcome, new friendships to be forged, new opportunities to live out our faith.

Douglas Grogan, Director of Music and Arts

I am excited for our Sanctuary to step up its game in the Music and Arts venue scene in Colorado Springs. With working HVAC and fully controllable multicolored lights, we will be on par with the likes of the Pikes Peak Center.

Bryan Hurst, Director of Operations

I am excited to build upon the learnings and deepenings from my recent renewal leave, especially how the congregation grew less pastor-centric and lay leadership was raised up in meaningful ways.

Rev. Patty Walker, Pastor of Prairie Campus

JOHN WESLEY RANCH

Where the Wifi is Low and the Connection is High

Every year, Sunday Schools, Choir, United Women of Faith, Youth Group and the staff make their way up to this little slice of FUMC, for a retreat away from the bustle of downtown. Several times a year, the whole church is invited up to The Ranch to share in a day of Creation, Community, and Christ. You too can make this Ranch your home away from home in of Divide, whether that be through a stay, service, or your support.

Whether you're looking for a weekend camping retreat, a place to host a conference or wedding, a cozy cottage for a romantic getaway, or a group retreat out in nature, the ranch has something for everyone.

With your help, we can continue to maintain our ranch and ensure our guests have a safe and enjoyable experience.

We offer a variety of volunteer opportunities throughout the year, from seasonal projects to lawn maintenance, fire mitigation, forestry. Even events like Winter Fest and Ranch Camp always offer an opportunity to give back. You can help make a difference in our community, learn new skills, and meet new people all while experiencing the beauty of the Ranch.

OUR WHOLE LIVES

8TH & 9TH GRADE | WEDNESDAYS 6:00-8:00PM
MID-JANUARY THRU MID-APRIL

FUMC will soon begin to offer Our Whole Lives (OWL). OWL is a sexual health curriculum designed to help people of all ages make healthy, responsible decisions about their bodies and relationships. Since God created us—mind, body, and spirit—it's essential that we are able to discuss all parts of ourselves within the church. Many topics related to sexual health have moral and ethical implications. Providing a safe, faith-based environment for these conversations helps young people navigate these complex issues without shame. As many schools scale back on their teaching about these subjects, it is crucial that our youth receive reliable information from trained leaders and be guided by our faith and values. This class will be co-facilitated by OWL-certified leaders, Rev. Amy Strader and Rev. Josh Rumble (First Congregational Church).

Bible Camp

Sundays October 12, 19, and 26, 9:00-10:00 am

The Bible is foundational to the Christian tradition, but it is old, long, and confusing. It's crucial that young people learn who wrote it, how to use it, what United Methodists believe about it, and perhaps most importantly, why it still matters today. Bible Camp allows 3rd-5th graders to do just that and culminates with a cherished tradition we call "3rd Grade Bible," where all 3rd graders receive their very own Bibles. Plus we will have a Bible Camp Funday at Main Event (date based on participants' schedules.)

PARENTING IS HARD: FUMC CAN HELP

Let's be honest: parenting can feel like an emotional rollercoaster. There are days filled with joy and laughter, and days that feel defined by meltdowns—and sometimes those meltdowns are our own. The truth is, parenting is hard, messy, and at FUMC, we believe that raising children in faith and love is a community effort. We want to be a place where you can be open about the challenges you face and find real, tangible support.

All ages are invited to head north for a local mission and cultural worship experience. Projects could include working in a community garden, distributing food, or sorting clothes for a clothes closet.

Family Matters

As parents, we are our children's first teachers of faith, and raising children as Christians brings its own set of tough questions. The Family Matters series is designed to provide resources to help you navigate your children's faith journey (and maybe a little bit of your own, too) and help you create friendships for the journey.

FIRST UNITED Methodist Church CAMPUSES

Prairie Campus

Each day we aim to be Christ's disciples, to follow in his ways of self-sacrifice for others, love for our enemies, reaching out to the poor, marginalized, and outcast.

Looking ahead, we are eager to continue being a healing place for those who carry religious trauma, including evangelicals, LGBTQ+ folks, and others seeking a safe and grace-filled community.

Foothills Campus

Launching this year, 2025, we offer a non-traditional, safe space for those disillusioned, questioning, or wounded by the church into a community of love, where faith can be explored freely and lived out together.

We meet in small groups for deep connection and conversation, and gather in larger groups for communal healing and action.
